The victims all appear to have died by accident, and have seemingly nothing in common. The film was ambiguously marketed as being "based on true events"; the plot bore elements reminiscent of the real-life murders of tourists by Ivan Milat in the 1990s, and Bradley Murdoch in 1999; and contained more extreme violence. Yet he bows to neither. This item has been added to your basket View basket Checkout. For example, an optimum load probably exists for laborers involved in heavy lifting tasks as well as receptionists who are required to type documents on a regular basis. However, the specific instructions Markham presents to predict weather and seasons suggests that ordinary husbandmen had some investment in these beliefs which to the modern reader appear incredibly abstract.
