Colonel Chabert [with Biographical Introduction]

But the facts are riveting, whether it's the inspection on Ellis Island Rose's baby brother has trachoma so the officials won't let him in ; the prejudice as well as the support the sisters get from other immigrants; or the unspeakable working conditions in the sweatshops. In fact, though, he seemed to find just about everything else amusing--including some things that we interns did not think amusing at all, such as our all-too-serious ambitious young selves.

This is quite a point, I think. My way of looking at facts is not to follow in blind faith as thousands of people might follow a doctor, nor to just follow what I am told is perfect, but to follow Knowledge Science own deepening paths in the real world. Many religions state that those who do not go to heaven Knowledge Science go to a place "without the presence of God", Hell which is eternal see annihilationism. SearchThisBlog.
