Our continuing debt to the unthematized and the impossibility of finally discharging that debt is one of the central motifs of phenomenology. You can inhale these from the bottle, rub them on your abdomen or legs mixed with a carrier oil like coconut oil, or diffuse them in the air. His- tory of music. I understand why the book is short, as the author says on Amazon - "This was to mirror the pace of the book and help readers understand the rhythm behind the project," but I think this could still have been achieved within even a slightly longer book. Ealloraiofaccioilfigliomaschio.As we shall see in a moment, the former purports to deny ontological dualism any scientific plausibility by appealing to its historical origins in human societies and cultures.
